THE DICKENS UNIVERSE

Join us to explore the world of Dickens... on the University of California's Santa Cruz campus August 5-10, 1984

Presented by University of California Extension Santa Cruz
Introduction

This summer, University of California Extension, Santa Cruz, is pleased to present the fourth in a series of annual workshop/conferences on Charles Dickens. Bringing together many distinguished Dickens scholars from throughout the University of California system as well as from other major universities, the program combines formal lectures, small discussion groups and workshops, films of Dickens’ works and video presentations. The comprehensive program is designed for both teachers and the general public.

The week-long course will focus each year on a different aspect of the vision of Charles Dickens as evidenced by one or two of his novels. In the summer of 1984, the topic will be “Dickens and America.” The course will explore Dickens’ response to what he called “the republic of my imagination” during his visit to the United States in the winter and spring of 1842. We will focus in particular on Dickens’ American novel, Martin Chuzzlewit, which many readers have found to be the funniest of all his books and which contains such memorable comic characters as Pecksniff and Mrs. Gamp. Attention will be paid to Dickens’ role as a social critic and to the historical background of his visits to North America. In addition to lectures and workshops, the course will feature dramatic readings from the novels, wine tasting, and other festive events of an appropriately Dickensian nature.

Format and Schedule

The program will begin Sunday, August 5. Registration for those staying on the UCSC campus will be from 3-5 p.m. at Kresge College, Room 317, followed by dinner from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. Registration for the program will take place from 6:30-7:30 p.m. at Kresge Town Hall. Dr. John Jordan, Coordinator of the program, will welcome participants and review events of the upcoming week. A full length film version of Pickwick Papers will be shown at 8 p.m.

Each day will begin with group discussions of Dickens' work. Participants will be divided into small groups for general discussions with Professors Murray Baumgarten, Edwin Eigner, Albert Hutter, John Jordan, Chris Vanden Bossche and other faculty members of the University of California Dickens Project staff. A lecture on the conference topic by a faculty member will follow. Workshop groups will then meet for discussion of the lecture and Martin Chuzzlewit. Students will break for lunch at 12:15 and will have the afternoon free to study, to enjoy the lovely Santa Cruz area, and to meet informally with fellow students.

After dinner we will gather for informal conversation over wine, port, and beer from 6:30-7:30. On two evenings at 7:30, we will have seminars on special topics like “Women in Dickens” and “Dickens, Twain, and Popular Literature.” Other activities include reader's theater presentations of Dickens' works, wine-tasting, our second Dickens book fair, and the unveiling of a new Dickens t-shirt.

From August 9 to 12 we will hold a scholarly conference on “Dickens and Twain” to which all Dickens Universe participants are invited. On the final day of this conference participants will go to the Berkeley campus to view their extensive Twain collection.

Students expecting to take the course for credit will be expected to write a paper of 5-7 typewritten pages in length, which will be due August 31. The topic of the paper will be discussed at the program.

Summer in Santa Cruz
The Santa Cruz campus is located at the northern end of scenic Monterey Bay. San Francisco is 75 miles north of Santa Cruz; San Jose is 40 minutes away. Monterey, directly across the Bay, can be reached in an hour; Carmel is a few minutes beyond. The climate is mild, with cool mornings and nights, and warm afternoons.

During the summer months, there is a shortage of off-campus housing in Santa Cruz and surrounding areas. For this reason, we suggest that you stay in campus residence halls, unless you are able to make your own housing arrangements. Campus housing is reasonable and convenient to course activities.

On Saturdays and Sundays, and after 5 p.m. on weekdays, you may park at no charge in Lots A, B, or C, or in metered Visitor Parking areas. Please avoid spaces restricted to UCSC personnel. A permit is required for weekday parking between 8 a.m. and 5:30 p.m.

If you need information on University housing, meals, and on-campus parking, please indicate so on the enrollment form.
